

MY DAILY MORNING PRAYER

Thank you for another day Lord. Thank you for another opportunity Lord. I am Your magnificent creation. My improvement helps everyone around me. I will continue to improve my talents, and I will continue to use my talents to serve my fellow humans.

I am confident, I am intelligent, I am assertive. The difficulties will continue to come, and I will continue to overcome them. I will be courageous for You, I will be disciplined for You, I will be accountable for You, and I will be grateful for You.

I love You Lord. Amen.
